Creativity is an important aspect to all careers. At MSU we want to not only educate our student but give them the resources to use that information in new and exciting ways. This Ted Talk gives some ideas on how we can foster student’s creative thinking.

To kick off National Poetry Month, the Center for Poetry will hold the Edible Book Contest. The contest is open for submissions at 12:30 pm and judging begins at 1pm. All you have to do is make an edible representation of a book or literary concept!

As a part of the Spring Poetry Festival, Dennis Hinrichsen will be hosting a conversation on Teaching and the Mind of the Poet at 3pm today in Snyder C205, as well as giving a reading at 7pm at the RCAH Theater!

Compost is a great way to prepare soil for spring planting. It conserves water, helps plants grow and can reduce the need for chemical fertilizers. If you want to learn to compost take a Composting for Newbies class on April 15 from 5:30 to 7:30pm.

This Saturday at 12pm the Eli and Edythe Broad Art Museum will be hosting Family Day. Learn about landscapes and the history of photography through the work of Trevor Paglen.