DOSE Principle of the Week:
Commitment to Student and Guest Experience

Questions for thought:
How can I demonstrate this during the week?
What goals can I set to achieve this?
What can I do to show appreciation to another team member for Delivering an Outstanding Spartan Experience?

We are halfway done with the week which means we are halfway to FUN DOSE FRIDAY! If you are inspired with a question that you would like to be included in the “Golden Bingo Barrel,” there are always submission slips on the bulletin board in the mailroom! Write your question down and place it in the bingo ball and your question could spark a fun conversation this Friday!

Happy Wednesday!

IS employees having some fun on their 2013 Professional Development Trip to Menlo Innovations!

It’s Tornado Season in Michigan!

One of the designated tornado shelter for RHS Information Services is the Training Room!

If there is ever a tornado warning while you are in the building, please take cover there!
