We will care today about the things that will define this world’s future.

Social Responsibility

“Concern for man and his fate must always form the chief interest of all technical endeavors ... Never forget this in the midst of your diagrams and equations.”
~ Albert Einstein

Getting Ready for School: MSU Library History

• The library began as a single reading room and was only open for a few hours per day.
• The library moved to Linton Hall in 1881.
• In 1925, the library was again moved to what is now the MSU Museum.
• The current library was built in 1955.
• The value of endowments for the library reached $5 million in 2007.
• Many buildings and halls have been named after the dedicated librarians that served during the MSU library’s early years.

Something to Look Forward to this Fall...

Starbucks Coffee Co. will be opening a new store in October on the first floor of Well’s Hall!
Be sure to stop by and get some coffee!
