Did You Know?

Since 1998, the MSU Yearbook changed its name to the “Red Cedar Log” and still goes by that name today. But before the 1980s, MSU’s Yearbook was ironically called “Wolverine” from 1910 – 1975.

Can you find all THREE Sparty mascots hidden on this page?

MSU Television

MSU will be launching their new cable lineup TODAY! The upgrade will include more channels, many of which were requested by campus customers. To activate the new channel, all campus TVs must be rescanned; for more information on rescanning, click here. The MSU campus cable network is run by IPF in partnership with RHS and MSU Broadcasting Services. Call IPF at (517) 353-1760 with concerns or assistance needs!

Recipe for Health

August’s featured food is the red bell pepper! Red bell peppers begin to appear in farmers markets in August and continue through mid-October, making them a delicious fall ingredient, especially when roasted! Brought to you by MSU’s Health4U, here’s a recipe for stuffed red peppers that is perfect for the start of their growing season!

(Recipe developed by Chef Kurt Kwiatkowski).
