2014 COMMENCEMENTS

Award-winning filmmaker and author Michael Moore (considered a father of documentaries) will be speaking at this weekend’s commencement ceremonies!

He is to speak at the 2pm ceremony on Dec. 13th and will also be receiving an honorary doctorate of humanities!

POS GROCERY CART?

Thanks to the Michigan State University’s College of Engineering Design Day, a team of MSU students have developed a POS, or point-of-sale, grocery cart that intends to make the shopping experience easier for consumers and less expensive for stores!
