Recipe for Health Cooking Series: Today from 12:10 – 12:50
An added feature of the Recipe for Health series this year is that each month when the recipe is served on campus, Chef Kurt will demonstrate how to make it. Just purchase and select your lunch at Brody Square and join him in the Brody Square demonstration kitchen.

To register for either event, call 353-2596 or email health4u@msu.edu

National Gazpacho Day
Gazpacho is a Spanish vegetable soup including tomatoes, cucumbers, peppers, and onions, and is served cold.
So, why is Gazpacho Day celebrated in December if it's cold? Perhaps it serves as a helpful reminder that summer will soon be on its way after winter is endured. Whatever the reason, gazpacho is a delicious meal that can be enjoyed all year round!
