Our Cornerstone
As a public, research-intensive, land-grant University funded in part by the state of Michigan, our mission is to advance knowledge and transform lives by:
- providing outstanding undergraduate, graduate, and professional education to promising, qualified students in order to prepare them to contribute fully to society as globally engaged citizen leaders
- conducting research of the highest caliber that seeks to answer questions and create solutions in order to expand human understanding and make a positive difference, both locally and globally
- advancing outreach, engagement, and economic development activities that are innovative, research-driven, and lead to a better quality of life for individuals and communities, at home and around the world

“With almost 32 years of service at MSU, 27 of them in IT for our Division, I plan to move gracefully into retirement when the time is right. So far it’s been a blast. My favorite Dilbert quote is "There is a fine line between genius and insanity. I have erased this line." Seems somewhat accurate these days.”
