IS Daily D.O.S.E. – January 5th, 2012

Today’s Weather:
High: 39°
Low: 32°
Partly Cloudy

Our Guest Service Philosophy

RHS Guest Service Philosophy
Our Strategy is, “we exist simply to exceed our guests’ expectations...” and our tactic is “…by paying attention to every detail in all we do and to all we serve.

IS Daily Events
IS Staff Meeting
9:00 – 10:00
IS Training Room 115

Spartan Sports
Swimming & Diving
All Day @ Delray Beach Florida

Congratulations to the Spartan basketball team on beating Wisconsin, 63-60 in overtime on Tuesday to keep their win streak going. The Spartans are now 14-2 with a 14 game winning streak. Iowa challenges the Spartans next on the 10th. Keep it up, Spartans!

This Month at the Wharton Center
January 7th: Beethoven’s Eroica
January 10th-15th: Million Dollar Quartet
January 27th-28th: The Exonerated
January 29th: Are You My Mother?
January 29th: St. Olaf Choir
January 31st-February 5th: The Addams Family

Spartan Fun Facts: By the Numbers
30,000 meals served daily in MSU Residence Halls
Facility for Rare Isotope Beams
$615,000,000 project
Oldest Book in MSU Libraries
539 Years Old
3 National Championships for MSU Ice Hockey
300 Members of the Spartan Marching Band
22,763,025 square feet of indoor space on campus

Happy Work Anniversary, Dan Marlatt!
Thanks for being a part of our Information Services team!

National Bird Day
National Bird Day was established by bird activists to have people to recognize the struggle of captive birds. It also draws attention to exploitations of birds in the U.S. pet industry. On this day, it is suggested we reflect on the conditions of birds held in captivity. Celebrate through bird watching, a favorite pass time of millions of people.