Spartans Win Annual MSU-UM Blood Challenge!
Spartans showed their true pride by collecting 1,311 units of blood during the 4-week challenge, while Michigan ended with 1,281. Congrats to those who participated!

This summer, zombies will be invading Michigan State! The School of Social Work is offering a one-of-a-kind online course called “Surviving the Coming Zombie Apocalypse: Catastrophes and Human Behavior” that will do a lot more than teach students how to fend off the undead!
