ENHANCE THE STUDENT EXPERIENCE
This week, our DOSE topic teaches us the importance of observing and improving the student experience, for it is constantly changing. What if MSU faculty lived among students in the Residence halls? Do you think this would enhance their student experience? Click here to read more about this topic and its success at other universities!

NATIONAL PLANT A FLOWER DAY 2015
Every year on March 12th, hundreds of thousands of people participate in this national spring event! With warmer weather right around the corner, this holiday promotes differentiated flower planting around the different climatic regions in the United States!

For us Michiganders, our spring temperatures usually start relatively early. Here are some flowers that will begin to bloom in early March that you can plant around your home!

TULIPS SNOWDROPS HYACINTH CROCUS

FOR THE MSU SPARRATANS AND OTHER BIG TEN TEAMS, YESTERDAY MARKED THE BEGINNING OF THE 2015 B1G TOURNAMENT!
The Spartans’ regular season was rocky, but they managed to close with winning eight of eleven games, planting them as a no. 3 seed in the tournament.
