DOSE Principle of the Week:

I am proud of my professional appearance, language, and behavior.

This is your basic business etiquette, wearing the proper attire for work, and behaving appropriately within the work environment. But it is not only wearing and acting appropriately during work hours, it’s being proud of yourself for doing so. If you take pride in what you wear and how you act during the week it will clearly show to everyone around you. Encouraging them to take pride in their appearance as well and create a more professional working environment.

Food for Thought Truck

The Food for Thought Truck celebrated its first tour through campus on Friday, March 22 by giving out free samples at various campus locations.

Food For Thought is no longer just a metaphoric phrase...it’s now a spectacular new "food adventure on wheels" rolling onto the MSU campus this month. The truck will be parked in front of the Kellogg Center parking ramp from March 25-29 during its inaugural week, with future locations in the works.
