IS DAILY D.O.S.E
MARCH 27, 2013
I am proud of my professional appearance, language, and behavior.

“A professional is someone who can do his best work when he doesn't feel like it.” -Alistair Cooke

IS DAILY EVENTS

WEEKLY WEB TEAM MEETING
8:30-10:00 AM
IS Conference Room 130

FILE STRUCTURE
1:00-2:00 PM
IS Training Room 115

STUDENT INTERVIEWS
2:00-4:00 PM
IS Resource Room 131

SWEET TREATS

Check out the MSU Baker’s Monthly Specials!

Watching basketball games with friends this week? Impress them by sharing a March Madness 9 inch Almond Delight Cookie!

Or satisfy your sweet tooth with some of their Mint Chocolate Chip Cupcakes!

YUM!

MSU MAKING A DIFFERENCE

Vets to AG, a program here at MSU, helps teach homeless veterans agriculture skills. Training helps show them meat packaging and process business with the hopes of job offerings after completion.

THE MAKING OF MODERN MICHIGAN

The Making of Modern Michigan is a digital collection of historical materials, such as pictures, genealogical materials, photos, and more, from 52 different libraries across Michigan! Collectively, they highlight the interesting history of our state!

Michigan State University Libraries leads this program in partnership with the 52 other Michigan libraries involved, including the Library of Michigan and the Michigan Library Consortium!

MSUFCU donated $1 million to the Eli and Edythe Broad Art Museum that will help provide engagement opportunities for everyone! Click the logo for the full story!

SPARTAN BASEBALL

The weather may be cold, but baseball season is underway for MSU! This past Saturday, the Spartans won against the Oakland Golden Grizzlies with a final score of 3-2.

The team was led by pitcher Chase Rihtarchik, who threw MSU’s first no-hitter since 2009 at this game! He was named Big Ten Pitcher of the Week!

For more on MSU Baseball, click here.

MSU’s College of Education has five graduate programs ranked No. 1 or 2 in U.S. News & World Report – more than any other education school in the country!

RESEARCH STUDY AT MSU FOUND...

A study led by MSU, has confirmed the first ever two-headed bull shark, with two heads instead of conjoined twins. This is the first record of dicephalia in a bull shark, said Michael Wagner, MSU assistant professor of fisheries and wildlife, who confirmed the discovery with colleagues at the Florida Keys Community College. To read the full story click here!