WEEKLY LINEUP TOPIC
Our Values:
COMMUNICATING WITH THE ANALYZER
Analyzers pay great attention to detail and are always incredibly focused on the tasks at hand. Click here for five ways that you can train your analytical thinking skills!

TEDxMSU: INDEPENDENTLY ORGANIZED TED EVENT
TED is coming to Michigan State University tomorrow, March 4th at the Wharton Center! The focus of the event:
Willpower and the mental and physical processes by which brilliant ideas make it out of brain space and into the real world.

The presentation will feature presenters from the MSU community talking about their experiences, current projects and future visions.

Tickets are $10 for MSU students with PID, and $15 for the general public. Visit the Wharton Center’s website for show information and ticket purchases!

EAT AT STATE ON SPRING BREAK!
Planning on being on campus next week? With spring break just a week away, MSU will be open for any remaining faculty, staff and students!
