DoSE Principle of the Week:

Effective Communication

Effective Communication means that we will strive for organizational clarity through honest, open, accurate and timely two-way communication. This is the fourth value of the people pillar.

“Kind words can be short and easy to speak, but their echoes are truly endless.” – Mother Teresa

Global Perspective

Michigan State University’s Department of Residence Education and Housing Services, which oversees on-campus housing operations, is sending a delegation to Beijing, China, over spring break, March 2-9, to explore higher education in China. “As the international student population at MSU continues to grow,” said Kathy Collins, director of REHS, “our department is committed to creating an environment that embraces and celebrates the global diversity of our student residents.”
