Adopt-a-Family Reminder

This year our family is mom, a student named Amie, her 9 year old son, Cameron and her 3 year old daughter, Taryn. There are ornaments on the tree in the kitchen listing gift ideas. Please take the ornament for any gift that you would like to purchase. All gifts should be turned into the front desk staff by Friday, December 16th. You do not need to wrap your gift, but if you choose to, be sure to put a tag with the name of the family member it.

This is a great way to help a family in need. Get your Christmas spirit on!

Computer Security Day

Computer Security Day was started in 1988 to help raise awareness of computer related security issues. The goal is to remind people to protect their computers and information. This is a good day to do some basic security checks and to follow up anything you’ve been meaning to do for a while.

- Read your workplace’s computer security policy again
- Check the security and safety of your computer hardware
- Clean the hardware and your desk zone
- Check for software and program vulnerabilities
- Back up your computer data
- Update security training manuals

An Evening with Michael Moore

When: Tonight @ 7:30 pm
Where: MSU Auditorium
Admission: $7.50 or just $5.00 with a student ID.

“Oscar-winning filmmaker, bestselling author and Flint native, Michael Moore, comes to MSU to discuss his latest book, Here Comes Trouble: Stories From My Life. This book is said to take readers on an unforgettable, take no-prisoners ride through the life and times of Michael Moore. Breaking the autobiographical mode, Moore’s memoir is alternately funny, eye-opening, and moving.”

Another ‘Victory for M-S-U!’

The Spartan football team won their last regular season game last weekend, 31-17, over the Northwestern Wildcats. They finish the regular season 7-1 in the Big Ten and 10-2 overall. Their win two weeks ago over Indiana helped them to clinch the top spot in the Legends division and a spot in the first ever Big Ten Championship game. The Spartans are set for a rematch against the Wisconsin Badgers Saturday, December 3rd. The win last weekend also bumped State up to a #13 BCS ranking. Cheer on the Spartans Saturday as they go for the first Big Ten Championship Game win and look to keep their Rose Bowl goals alive!
