Leftovers?
Already anticipating the plethora of leftovers you will have after your Thanksgiving meal? Well, here’s some inspiration! The five most popular ways to eat leftovers in the US are as a sandwich, in a stew, in chili or soup, in a casserole, or as a burger! Try something new this year!

Is your Kitchen Ready to Cook a Thanksgiving Meal?
• Make sure all of your counter tops are clean and sanitized.
• Have plenty of Ziploc bags and containers on hand for leftovers and baked goods!
• Make room in your refrigerator and freezer ahead of time to store all the leftovers from your meal!
• Check that your refrigerator temperature reads below 40°F to keep food safe from bacteria.
• Be sure to have food thermometers handy for meat!

Turkey Dinner
• In the US, 280 million turkeys are sold for Thanksgiving celebrations!
• Residents of California consume the most turkey in the US!
• The average American eats 16-18 pounds of turkey per year.
• The average weight of turkeys purchased in the US is 15 pounds.
• 15 pound turkeys usually are made up of 70% white meat and 30% dark meat.
• The largest turkey ever raised was 86 pounds!

Thanksgiving Day is a jewel, to set in the hearts of honest men; but be careful that you do not take the day, and leave out the gratitude.” –E.P. Powell

Don’t forget – the last home football game is this Saturday, November 30th, against Minnesota at noon! Tune into BTN to catch all of the action! Or listen to it on the Spartan Sports Network radio station!
