Teddy Roosevelt Day
TR Fun Facts:
• Teddy Roosevelt Day is celebrated today because October 27th was his birthday.
• He graduated from Harvard in 1880
• He was awarded the Nobel Peace Prize in 1906 for the work he did to help end the Russo-Japanese war.
• He is the youngest U.S. president – having been elected when he was just 42 years old.
• The iconic teddy bear toy
  was named after him.

MSU Helps Transform Michigan into a Wine Destination

Today, Michigan is ranked as the nation’s 4th largest grape producer. With assistance from MSU, the state’s wine industry:
• has seen wine grape growth increase by 500% since 1973.
• now comprises 2,000 acres of vineyards dedicated to wine.
• has grown from less than 10 to 86 wineries, producing more than 1 million gallons of wine each year.
• contributes $300 million to Michigan’s economy.
