Just a few ways we can show gratitude for everyone around us!

The Date has been set!

Midnight Madness is happening this Friday, October 18th!
Doors open at 8:30 p.m. and admission is free!

Try The Eat-At-State Food Trucks’ Special of the day:

Beef chili topped with cheddar cheese and sour cream for $3.00! The Food Truck will be in the Wells Hall Courtyard from 11:00 a.m.-3:00 p.m.

MSU helps in flight!

MSU and the Boeing Company have received a contract worth up to $4 million dollars from the U.S. Air Force! MSU will be designing sensors to detect cracks in the layers of aircraft structures. MSU is one of the only few universities with NDE, or nondestructive evaluation, in the country! It will take about 18 months to design and test new sensors in the laboratory before Boeing will test the sensors in the field. To view the full story, click here!
