PUMPKIN PALOOZA CRAFT NIGHT AT THE UNION!
Students, head over to the Union (Room 50) tonight from 7-9 p.m. for pumpkin painting! Get in the fall spirit and be creative! All supplies, including pumpkins, are included and free while supplies last!

GLOBAL RECOGNITION
Earlier this month, the Eli and Edythe Broad Art Museum’s design was presented at the World Architecture Festival to a forum of more than 2,000 architects from all over the globe! This festival is the world’s largest awards festival for global architecture. The Broad Museum was awarded second place in the culture category!

SUSTAINABILITY
WEEK FUN FACT!
MSU’s use of solar panels and the installation of a new anaerobic digester have helped the university reduce coal use by 11 percent since 2012 and emissions by 17 percent since 2010.

Don’t forget to decorate the office with creative and festive fall decorations!
Check out the MSU “Sustainability Monthly” newsletter for inspiration.
