Teamwork & Inclusion

“We will succeed individually only when we are passionate about prospering as a team.”
-From the RHS Values

Trunk or Treat Today

Today, the Celebration Team will be all over campus delivering candy to RHS team members! They will be stopping by Information Services at 10:25 a.m., so be on the lookout! For the full schedule, log into MyRHS here!

The Truth About Pumpkins

- Centuries ago, the pumpkin was called a “Pepon,” meaning “large melon.”
- Native Americans dried strips of pumpkin, which they wove into rugs. They also began the tradition of roasted pumpkin seeds.
- The original pumpkin pie was invented by the colonists. They would cut the top off of a pumpkin and fill the middle with milk, spices, and honey. It was then baked in hot ashes and served as a dessert!

Costume Contest Tomorrow

Tomorrow is the Annual IS Costume Contest! Dress up and head to the front desk during the day to have your picture taken! All pictures will be printed and on display for voting on Friday, November 1st! Get creative! Remember, there will be one student winner and one full time winner! Both will receive $25 Spartan Cash!
