Fiscal Responsibility

Happy Wonderful Weirdo’s Day!
This day originates in Austin, Texas, but Austin isn’t the only city with weirdos- Wonderful Weirdo’s Day is catching on in other parts of the country. If you wish to partake, HowStuffWorks offers a few ways to highlight your inner quirks:

- Become a member of the Ministry of Silly Walks for the day.
- Create a fake language between friends.
- Wearing a silly costume is a reliable way to celebrate weirdness.
- If you prefer weirdo minimalism, wearing slinky eyeball spectacles or knee socks of alternate colors or patterns are great ways to highlight any subtle eccentricities.

Happy Birthday on Sunday, Gene! We hope you have a great day!

Tips for Practicing Fiscal Responsibility

- Recognize needs vs. wants
- Save a percentage of your paycheck every week
- Make sure all your bills are paid before spending
- Create a budget and stick to it!
