MSU Horticulture Gardens is hosting a series of programs throughout the fall for the “Curious Gardner!” The topics of these four programs, which take place once a month through December, range from spa treatments to making your own holiday wreaths! Click here for more information and registration! Prices for individual classes vary, but MSU Horticulture members receive a discount! Become a member here!